- 1 I have had much experience in the sale of and dealing with in the Supreme Court of Tasmania in which the said Albert Ernest Livingston Mc Gregor and Alexander Mc Gregor are Plaintiffs and the said Harold Hill Sheppard and Richard W Harvey are Defendants.

If the said goods and other property are sold at Crotty aforesaid they will in my opinion not realise more than from one hundred pounds to one hundred and twenty pounds gross but I believe that they cannot be sold to greater advantage at any other place taking into consideration the expense of packing up and unpacking such goods cartage and railway charges or freight in respect to removing thereof to any other place. —
