Hobart, on Wednesday the eleventh day of April next at three o'clock in the afternoon precisely.

The Sections of the Bankruptcy Act, 1870, under which the Proceedings are instituted provide as follows :—

“112. (1.) A Debtor unable to pay his Debts may summon a General Meeting of his Creditors, and such meeting may, by a special Resolution as defined by this Act, declare that the affairs of the Debtor are to be liquidated by arrangement and not in Bankruptcy, and may at that or some subsequent Meeting, held at an interval of not more than a week, appoint a Trustee, with or without a Committee of Inspection.”

(5.) “All such property of the Debtor as would, if he were made Bankrupt, be divisible amongst his Creditors shall, from and after the date of the appointment of a Trustee, vest in such Trustee under a liquidation by arrangement, and be divisible amongst the Creditors, and all such Settlements, Conveyances, Transfers, Charges, Payments, Obligations, and proceedings as would be void against the Trustees in the case of a Bankruptcy shall be void against the Trustee in the case of liquidation by arrangement.”

“113. The Creditors of a Debtor unable to pay his Debts may, without any proceedings in Bankruptcy, by an Extraordinary Resolution, resolve that a composition shall be accepted in satisfaction of the Debts due to them from the Debtor.”

“An Extraordinary Resolution of Creditors shall be a resolution which has been passed by a majority in number and three-fourths in value of the Creditors of the Debtor assembled at a General Meeting to be held in the manner prescribed, of which notice has been given in the prescribed manner, and has been confirmed by a majority in number and value of the Creditors assembled at a subsequent General Meeting, of which notice has been given in the prescribed manner, and held at an interval of not less than seven days, nor more than fourteen days, from the date of the meeting at which such resolution was first passed.”
