IN THE SUPREME COURT OF TASMANIA.
IN BANKRUPTCY.

In the matter of a Bankruptcy Petition against JAMES WELCH, of Port Cygnet, in Tasmania, Farmer.

UPON the hearing of this Petition this day, and upon proof satisfactory to the Court of the debt of the Petitioner, and of the act of bankruptcy alleged to have been committed by the said James Welch having been given, it is ordered that the said James Welch be and he is hereby adjudged Bankrupt.

Dated this 25th day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

By the Court,

GEO. BROWNE, Registrar.

The first General Meeting of the Creditors of the said James Welch is hereby summoned to be held at the office of Mr. Richard James Lucas, of Trafalgar Place, Hobart Town, in Tasmania, Solicitor, on the 21st day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, at twelve o'clock noon; and the Court has ordered the Bankrupt to attend thereat for examination, and to produce thereat a statement of his affairs as required by law.

Until the appointment of a Trustee, all persons having in their possession any of the effects of the Bankrupt must deliver them up, and all debts due to the Bankrupt must be paid, to the Registrar.

Creditors must forward their proofs of debts to the Registrar.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF TASMANIA.
IN BANKRUPTCY.

In the matter of a Bankruptcy Petition against THOMAS SHIRLEY, of Liverpool-street, Hobart Town, in Tasmania, Draper and Tailor, a Bankrupt.

UPON the hearing of this Petition, and upon proof satisfactory to the Court of the debt of the Petitioner, and of the trading and of the act of bankruptcy alleged to have been committed by the said Thomas Shirley having been given, it is ordered that the said Thomas Shirley be and he is hereby adjudged a Bankrupt.

Dated this fourth day of August, 1876.

By the Court,

GEO. BROWNE, Registrar.

GENERAL POST OFFICE.

7th August, 1876.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

IT is hereby notified that Sealed Tenders for the Conveyance of the following Mails per horse or vehicle for Three years will be received at this Office until Tuesday, the 29th instant, at noon:—

1st. To and from Brighton, Black Brush, Lower and Upper Broad Marsh, three times a week each way, to commence on the 1st October next.

2nd. To and from Richmond and Spring Bay via Buckland (Prosser's Plains) and Orford, twice a week each way, to commence on the 1st October next.

3rd. To and from Hobart Town and Sorell via Kangaroo Point and Cambridge, daily (Sunday excepted) each way, to commence on the 1st October next.

4th. To and from Sorell and Port Arthur, via Forcett, Carlton, and Dunalley (East Bay Neck), twice a week each way, to commence on the 1st October next.

5th. To and from Corners, Fingal, and St. Mary's, daily (Sunday excepted) each way, to commence on the 1st October next.

6th. To and from St. Mary's, Falmouth, and George's Bay, three times a week each way, to commence on the 1st October next.

7th. To and from Fingal and Reedy Marsh (Black Boy), twice a week each way, to commence on the 1st October next.

8th. To and from Hobart Town and Franklin via Victoria (Huon River), daily (Sunday excepted), to commence on the 1st November next.

9th. To and from Franklin and Honeywood, via Shipwright's Point, daily (Sunday excepted) each way, to commence on the 1st November next.

10th. To and from Victoria (Huon River) and Port Cygnet, daily (Sunday excepted) each way, to commence on the 1st November next.

The Contractor will be required to leave at, and receive from, the various Post Offices or Mail-receiving Houses on the line of road or other parts in the respective Townships all Mails and Government Despatches as addressed.

The Postmaster-General will possess the power of altering the days and hours for despatching the Mails, and of approving or otherwise of the men employed by the Contractor as riders or drivers.

The Postmaster-General, or Officer of the Department deputed by him, when on duty, will possess the right of a seat, free of charge, in cases in which the Mails are conveyed by any vehicle.

The Postmaster-General will possess the power to terminate the Contract at any time on giving to the Contractor three months' notice of his intention to do so.

No exemption from payment of the tolls at the turnpikes, ferries, and bridges will be made on account of conveying the Mails.

The Contractor will be bound to provide a secure and locked receptacle to deposit the Mails when conveyed by vehicle, and proper waterproof saddle-bags when conveyed on horseback, in order to secure the Mails from wet or other damage on all occasions.

The Contractor will be bound in penalties, to be recovered in a summary manner, to convey the Mails at a speed of not less than Six and a half miles an hour, and not to exceed time allowed for delivering the Mails at the respective Post Offices, the penalties being at the rate of twenty shillings for the first ten minutes, and five shillings for every subsequent five minutes; and will be further bound in a similar manner not to carry, or knowingly allow any passenger to carry, any letter or parcel to the injury of the Post Office Revenue.

The written consent of two responsible persons willing to become sureties must be attached to each Tender.

The Crown Solicitor will prepare bonds for the signature of the Contractor and his sureties, at the cost of the Contractor; and no payment will be made to any Contractor, although he may have entered upon his contract, until his bond is duly executed in conformity with the above conditions.

Parties tendering will be required to forward a marked cheque or cash for the sum of £20 with each Tender when their Tenders are for sums over £100, for £10 when their Tenders are for sums between £50 and £100, and for £5 when their Tenders are for sums under £50, as a guarantee of good faith, to be returned as soon as the Bond is duly executed.

The Postmaster-General does not bind himself to accept the lowest Tender, and also reserves the right of declining to accept any Tender.

The Tenders are to be marked on their envelopes—"Tenders for the Conveyance of the Mails," with a further description of the Mails for the conveyance of which the Tender is made; thus—"To and from _____, as the case may be."

Tenders must be made upon a printed form, which can be had at any of the above-named Post Offices, and at the General Post Office, Hobart Town. Any additional information that may be required can be obtained upon application, personally or by letter, to the Secretary, General Post Office, Hobart Town.

CHARLES MEREDITH, Postmaster-General.
