In Bankruptcy.

The humble petition of Edgar Wallace Ward

of Hobart in Tasmania Butcher

SHEWETH—

That your Petitioner alleges that he is unable to pay his debts, and is desirous of instituting proceedings for liquidation of his affairs by arrangement or composition with his creditors, and hereby submits to the jurisdiction of this Court in the matter of such proceedings, and that your Petitioner estimates the amount of the debts owing by him to his creditors at £184. 0. 0

Your Petitioner therefore prays that notices convening such general meeting or meetings of his creditors as may be necessary to be given by him during the course of such proceedings may be sent in the prescribed manner and that such resolution or resolutions as his creditors may lawfully pass in the course of such proceedings, and as may require registration, may be duly registered by the Registrar of the Court.

And your Petitioner shall ever pray, etc. E W Ward

Private Bill Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that it is the intention of HAROLD EDWARD COHEN, of Melbourne, in the State of Victoria (hereinafter called "the promoter"), to apply to the House of Assembly for leave to bring in a Bill, of which the following are the general objects:—

1. To enable the promoter to construct, maintain, and work by steam or electricity a railway from Hobart, via Kingston, to Huonville, and thence up the valley of the Huon River to the Weld River, or to a point between Huonville and the Weld River, and from Huonville to a point between Franklin and Castle Forbes Bay, and certain branch railways through private property or Crown lands or upon public roads, and to construct and maintain such works as may be necessary for the convenient and effectual construction and working of the said railways.

2. To provide for the incorporation in the said Bill of the whole or portion of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1901," and of the "Lands Clauses Act," and otherwise for the purchase, rental, and acquisition of any lands, stone, and other materials required for any of the abovementioned works or in connection with the same.

3. To enable the promoter to erect poles and convey electricity by wires or otherwise upon public roads, or any other places as may be necessary in connection with the said works.

4. To authorise the use of steam or electric traction upon the said railways.

5. To enable the Promoters to demand and take tolls for the carriage of passengers and goods upon the said railways.

6. To enable the Government to resume the said railways.

7. To provide for the working of the said railways, and to enable the promoter to make by-laws and rules in relation to the traffic thereof and thereon, and for the infliction of penalties.

8. To enable the promoter to acquire lands for settlement purposes from the Crown or private persons, and to provide for the means and terms of acquisition.

The Bill will also contain all necessary clauses that may be deemed proper for enabling the promoter to carry out the objects of the undertaking.
