IN THE SUPREME COURT OF TASMANIA
IN BANKRUPTCY.

IN THE MATTER of proceedings for liquidation
by arrangement or composition with Creditors instituted by Claud Standaloft of Ross in Tasmania, Storekeeper.

I do hereby certify for the following reason that the proceedings in the above matter would in my opinion be more advantageously conducted in the Bankruptcy Court Launceston That it appears by the affidavit of Clyde Gibson filed herein this day that the Petition of the Debtor herein was inadvertently filed in this Court and the Petitioner resides at Ross within the Jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court Launceston And I do order that the said Petition be transferred to the Bankruptcy Court Launceston and that all proceedings herein and consequent thereon be valid as if the said Petition had been originally filed in the Bankruptcy Court Launceston.

Dated this Second day of October One thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

Dear Sir/

re CLAUDE STANDALOFT

We have just received instructions from clients of ours in this city, creditors of the above named person that he has filed a petition for liquidation of his affairs in your office at Hobart. This seems to be in contravention of Rule 190 under the Bankruptcy Act, as Ross where the debtor resides is undoubtedly within the County of Somerset in the Northern - - Electoral districts. See the Act of Tasmania 3 Edward VII No. 6. There are a large number of creditors here who are desirous of having Standaloft's affairs dealt with in Launceston, and we are writing to learn whether you will under the circumstances exercise the power undoubtedly given to you under Rule 190 to refuse to - entertain any proceedings in connection with the petition.

Yours truly,
