3. That the creditors of the said Peter Smith present at the said meeting by proxy and proxy did pass a special Resolution to the following effect namely:
 1. That the discharge of the said Peter Smith be and the same is hereby granted
 2. That we do hereby assent to the said Peter Smith applying to the Honorable the Supreme Court of Tasmania with Bankruptcy jurisdiction for an order of discharge although the Bankruptcy has not been closed we being of opinion that the Bankruptcy of the said Peter Smith and his failing to pay a dividend of ten shillings in the pound arose from circumstances for which he the said Peter Smith should not be held responsible and we desire that an order of discharge should be granted to him

H. That the foregoing special Resolutions were duly passed at the said meeting by the creditors of the said Peter Smith then assembled in my presence

5 That the creditors of the said Peter Smith assembled at the said meeting did express their desire that an order of discharge should be granted to the said Peter Smith

It is reported to the Court as follows

1. That the second meeting of creditors in this Bankruptcy was held at the office of Ambrose Alfred Finch Solicitor situate in King Street in the Town of Queenstown in Tasmania on Monday the twelfth day of November one thousand nine hundred at eleven of the clock in the forenoon as summoned by Frederick Henry Robertson the Trustee of the Estate of the abovenamed Bankrupt on the 25th day of October 1900
2. That by special resolutions passed by the creditors of the said Peter Smith then and there assembled it was declared
 1. That the discharge of the said Peter Smith should be and the same was thereby granted
 2. That the creditors did assent to the said Peter Smith applying to the Honourable the Supreme Court of Tasmania in its Bankruptcy jurisdiction for an order of discharge although the Bankruptcy had not been closed they being of opinion that the bankruptcy of the said Peter Smith and his failing to pay a dividend of ten shillings in the pound arose from circumstances for which the said Peter Smith should not be held responsible and they did desire that an order of discharge should be granted to him.

REGISTRY OF TRADE MARKS.

No. 2238-2245.

General Register Office, Hobart,
16 November, 1900.

UNDER the provisions of "The Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1893," application has been made to register the following Trade Marks by Messrs. Young & Butler, Solicitors, Hobart, in respect of Manufactured Tobacco (Class 45), in the name of Henry Clay and Bock & Co., Limited, Dashwood House, 9, New Broad-street, London, England, Manufacturers of Havana Cigars.

The Trade Mark No. 2238 consists of an oval band on which is inscribed the words "La Flor de Henry Clay, Habana. In the space within the oval are the words "Julian Alvz."

The Trade Mark No. 2239 consists of a label, containing, in the centre, an oval medallion bearing a vignetted portrait of Henry Clay, the American Senator. Above the medallion is a band bearing the words "Fabrica de Tabacos de Julian Alvarez, Habana." At each end of the band is a star, one of which bears the words "Calzada de Luyano, No. 100, and the other, "Deposito calle de O'Reilly, No. 9½." Surrounding the medallion are representations of medals and floral devices. On either side of the two medals immediately below the portrait appear the ends of a ribbon bearing the words "Henry Clay." At the foot of the label are the words "Miemtos de la Academia de Agricultura Industria y Comercio de Paris."

The Trade Mark No. 2240 consists of the representation of an eagle with outstretched wings standing upon a scroll bearing the words "Bock y Ca Habana." One of the wings of the eagle bears the words "El Aguila," and the other, the words "De Oro."

The Trade Mark No. 2241 consists of a label of oval form, bearing in the centre, a crowned eagle with wings outstretched, standing upon a ribbon upon which are the words "Bock y Ca Habana," one of the wings of the eagle bearing the words "El Aguila," and the other the words "De Oro," the eagle being the centre of divergent rays of light. Above the eagle, in large ornamental type, are the words "Bock y Ca." About the device are arranged representations of medals, through which is entwined a scroll, bearing the words "Fabricantes de Tabacos Habana." The remainder of the label is clouded to assume an oval form.

The Trade Mark No. 2242 consists of a label having an outer border consisting of an oval wreath composed of leaves. Within the wreath, upon a back-ground composed of microscopic letters, forming the repeated words "Bock & Co., Habana," within numerous honey-combed shape devices is the representation of a crowned eagle, with wings outstretched, standing upon a scroll. Beneath the eagle, in large type, are the words "Bock y Ca." In smaller type, and occupying the whole of the interior space within the wreath, and partially superimposed upon the device of the eagle, are the words "Bock y Ca," previously mentioned is the name "Bock y Ca," the signature "Bock & Co.," and other descriptive words.

The Trade Mark No. 2243 consists of an oblong label containing, in the centre, the representation of a crowned eagle, with wings, outstretched, standing upon a scroll, one of the wings of the eagle bearing the words "El Aguila," and the other, the words "de Oro." Surrounding the eagle are representations of medals. Across the head of the label, in large type, are the words "Regelia de Preferencia," and in the lower part of the label are the words "Cigares de Regalia," also in large type. The vacant spaces are occupied by various words of description and floral and other ornamental devices.

The Trade Mark No. 2244 consists of a label bearing an oval device upon the front and also at the back thereof. Upon the front of the label are the words "Bock y Cia" in large ornamental type surrounded by masses of clouds, from which issue rays of light, the ends of which terminate to make the whole assume an oval form. Upon the back of the label is a device of oval form with an ornamented edge or border. Within the device is the representation of a crowned eagle, with outstretched wings standing upon a ribbon bearing the words "Bock y Ca, Habana," and having upon one wing the words "El Aguila," and on the other side the words "de Oro," above the head of the eagle being the words "Trade Mark." Within the device is the fac simile signature "Bock y Ca" and the word "Habana."

The Trade Mark No. 2245 consists of a label, containing in the centre an oval medallion, bearing a vignetted portrait of Julian Alvarez, a predecessor in business of the applicants. Upon a ribbon at the head of the medallion are the words "Fabrica de Tabacos," and at the foot of the medallion, the word "Habana," and beneath "Chevalier de L'Ordre National de la Legion d'Honneur Exposition de 1878." At the bottom of the label, in small type, are the words "Miembro de la Academia Nacional de Agricultura, Industria Y Comercio de Paris." The medallion rests on an ornamental stand adorned with foliage, and is flanked by ornamental devices representing a coat-of-arms on one side and a caduceus, an anchor, a wheel, and boxes and bundles of cigars on the other.

A fac simile of each of the Marks may be seen at this Office.

ROBT. M. JOHNSTON, Registrar of Trade Marks.

In the matter of a special resolution for liquidation by arrangement of the affairs of JOHN LESLIE DUTTON MALLINSON, of St. Marys, in Tasmania, Storekeeper.

THE Creditors of the abovenamed John Leslie Dutton Mallinson who have not already proved their debts, are required, on or before the nineteenth (19th) day of October, to send their names and addresses, and the particulars of their debts or claims to me, the undersigned William Robert Rolph, of Launceston, the Trustee under the liquidation, or in default thereof they will be excluded from the benefit of the Dividend proposed to be declared.

Dated this sixth day of October, 1900.

W. R. ROLPH (Rolph & Young), Trustee.

"THE GREAT MIDLAND AND WEST COAST RAILWAY AND ORE-REDUCTION COMPANY ACT."

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is the intention of Robert James Sadler, of Launceston, in Tasmania, Esquire, to apply for a Private Bill to revive or re-enact, with certain amendments, alterations, or modifications, "The Great Midland and West Coast Railway and Ore-reduction Company Act."

The general objects of the said Bill are to revive or re-enact "The Great Midland and West Coast Railway and Ore-reduction Company Act," hereinafter called the said Act, with the following amendments, alterations, or modifications:—

1. To amend Part II., Section 4, of the said Act, by striking out, in line 4, the words "date of this Act," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "the first day of January, 1901."

2. To amend Section 5, Sub-section 4, of the said Act, by striking out the words "for a further term not exceeding 21 years," in the first and second lines, and inserting in lieu thereof the following words:—"for further successive terms of 21 years each."

3. To amend Section 5, Sub-section 5, by inserting, after the word "this," in the fifth clause of such Sub-section, the word "amending."

4. To amend Section 5, Sub-section 5, clause (c), by inserting, after the word "this," in the last line of the clause, the word "amending."

5. To amend Part VIII., Section 44, by striking out the words "date of this Act," in the third line thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "first day of January, 1901."

6. To amend Part VIII., Section 44, by inserting in line 6, after the words "permanent way," the word "plant."

7. To amend Part VIII., Section 44, by striking out the whole of paragraph 2, commencing with the words "Provided that" and ending with the words "the said railway."

8. To amend Part XIII., Section 99, by striking out the words "passing of this Act," in line 3, and inserting in place thereof the words "first day of January, 1901"; and also to amend the said Section, by striking out the words "in manner hereinafter prescribed," in line 4, and inserting in place thereof the words "on a plan or plans that have been deposited from time to time with the Minister."

9. To authorise the Promoter to cut, use, sell, or otherwise dispose of any timber growing on the eight blocks of land mentioned in Section 99 of the said Act, or any of them.

10. To provide that persons prospecting according to law on any of the eight blocks of land to be leased to the said Promoter, under agreements respectively and duly made with him, shall, in the event of the forfeiture of any part of the land upon which such persons may be prospecting, be entitled to a lease or leases in priority to other applicants for such land prospected by them, as they may, within 30 days of the forfeiture being proclaimed, mark off under the provisions of "The Mining Act, 1893."

11. To amend Part XXII., Section 182, by striking out the words in lines 3 and 4, "from the passing of this Act," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "from the date of this amending Act."

12. To amend Part XXII., Section 183, by striking out the word "Three," in the first line of the said Section, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "Six"; and further to amend the said Section by inserting after the word "this," at the end of the first line of the said Section, the word "amending;" and by inserting the word "amending" after the word "this," in the ninth line of the said Section; and also by inserting the word "amending" after the word "this," in the thirteenth line of the said Section; and also by striking out the words "from the passing of this Act," in the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth lines of the said Section, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "from the passing of this amending Act."

13. To amend the said Act in such manner and form as Parliament may enact for the purposes of carrying out the above objects, or any of them, or any of the purposes or objects consequential upon or incidental to the said Act or Bill. The said Bill will also contain all clauses usual in Bills of a like nature, and necessary for enabling the Promoters to carry out the general objects of the said Act and Bill, and all consequential amendments.

This is the Petition referred to in the annexed Affidavit of Alexander Beaumont Cruickshank sworn before me this

14 day of September 1900

To the Supreme Court of Tasmania in Bankruptcy

The humble Petition of Alexander Beaumont Cruickshank of Queenstown in Tasmania Solicitor sheweth

That Peter Smith of Queenstown in Tasmania Tobacconist carries on business within the Souther Electoral Districts that is to say at Queenstown aforesaid

That the said Peter Smith is indebted to your Petitioner in the sum of Fifty seven pounds five shillings for money lent and paid by your Petitioner to the said Peter Smith at his request and for work and labour done and services rendered by y your Petitioner to the said Peter Smith at his request

That your Petitioner doth not nor doth any person or persons in his behalf hold any security on the Bankrupt's estate or any part thereof for the payment of the said sum

That the said Peter Smith has committed an act of Bankruptcy within six months before the presentation of this Petition

That the act of Bankruptcy committed by the said Peter Smith was that he did on the twenty seventh day of August instant assign his estate to Frederick Henry Robertson for the benefit of his Creditors

Your Petitioner therefore humbly prays that on proof of the requisites in that behalf on the signing of this Petition the said Peter Smith may be adjudicated a Bankrupt

And your Petitioner will ever pray &c
