NUMBER.

Colonial Treasurer,

Hobart Town, 20. January 1873

The Colonial Treasurer submits that Alfred Drayton of the Ferry House Inn Rines can be granted a disburse for the said house at £25 - he having forwarded the fee to the Commercial Bank Camerston by cheque on the 31 December last, but by accident the cheques were not properly endorsed and had to be returned - the cheques were subsequently cashed.

Re: Hm:

The Col. Treasurer

Applications for remission of extra Fee of £5 payable for Publishers business if paid after 31 December

---

Alfred Deighton - Ferry House Inn, River Cam - on the grounds that the money was forwarded to the <sup>Commercial</sup> Bank, Lammerton by Cheques on 31 Dec, but by accident the Cheques were not properly indorsed and had to be returned - the Cheques were subsequently cashed -

Patrick Breheny - Union Hotel, Circular Road on the grounds that he had forwarded £20 on account before 31 December and it was impossible to forward the balance £5 before the 13 January - the £5 has been paid -

H. H. Mence - Sherwood Inn - Sherwood - on the ground that Mence was in Lammerton previous to 31 Dec expecting a friend would advance him the amount but he was disappointed, he however obtained the money £25 from Mr B W. Campion on 2nd Jan<sup>y</sup> and forwarded it to Hearn on that day, the £5 extra Fee was also forwarded subsequently.
