

Morris Gleitzman Writing Competition 2019

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
learners first

Give it a go. The biggest winner will be your imagination.

What to do: Write an amusing or funny story. 500 word maximum.

Who can enter: Open to all Grade 5 and Grade 6 Tasmanian school students.
One entry per student.

Where to enter: Entry forms are available from your local participating school or at any Libraries Tasmania library or by download from libraries.tas.gov.au/features/Pages/writing-comp.aspx

Print and drop off your entry, with your completed entry form, to any of our libraries or email your entry and a copy of your entry form slip to writingcomp@education.tas.gov.au

Entries close: Tuesday, 30 April 2019.

Prizes: Prizes include signed copies of some of Morris Gleitzman's books.

Winners: Winners and prizes will be announced by Morris Gleitzman, the current Australian Children's Laureate, during his visit to Tasmania on 26 and 27 June 2019.

For more information:

Email writingcomp@education.tas.gov.au

ENTRY FORM

First name: _____ Surname: _____

Grade: _____ Age: _____

School: _____

Story title: _____

DECLARATION:

- I declare this story is an original story that I wrote.
- I have not copied any part of it from a story by another author.
- I have not taken another author's story and put it in my own words.

Signed (student author): _____

Signed (teacher or parent): _____

Attach your story to your entry form and drop it off at any Libraries Tasmania branch or email to writingcomp@education.tas.gov.au by Tuesday 30 April 2019.